The President Says

The national election is over. Whether we were on the losing side or on the winning side we still have our God-given right to say and do what we please so long as it does not interfere with the rights of others. This is still America and the same principle upon which she was built still stands, "United we stand, divided we fall." It is our duty to accept that responsibility and all together put our shoulders to the wheel and push.

ROBERT TURNER,
President for Two Days.

Parents Will Visit Schools During American Education Week

Will Visit Horace Mann Theme for the Week Is Defense in Education and Democracy.

Next week, from November 10 to November 16, schools and colleges will unite in a common observance of National Education Week, which takes as its theme for 1940, "Education for the Common Defense."

The College and the Horace Mann High School will be among the institutions observing the week. While no extensive local program is planned here, both the Horace Mann High School and the College will follow the theme set up nationally. In the Horace Mann High School, parents of the students enrolled will visit the institution to observe educational practices, meet teachers and school officials, and learn how schools teach pupils respect and understanding for the principles of democracy. The object of this is to demonstrate to the parents the ways and means of training children for life in a democracy. A special invitation has been extended to parents to visit the school during the week.

The College will not attempt to hold any meetings in observance of the week because of the lack of assembly facilities; but both students and faculty of the College are urged to do whatever is possible in their daily work to apply the theme of Education Week to their own affairs.

Since the auditorium is not available for meetings, the committee for Education Week has requested the local ministers to use the theme in their sermons next Sunday. The local luncheon clubs—the Rotary and the Monday Forum—have also been requested to observe the week. Students are urged to attend the local churches and club meetings, wherever it is possible to do so.

"World events are making it increasingly apparent that the theme of American Education Week this year was selected wisely," said President Roosevelt recently in a statement issued from the White House. "There is unusual need for the schools to play their part in providing for the common defense. Our great public school systems, including colleges and universities, are rendering invaluable service in training men for work in defense activities. But it is more important now than ever before that our schools should give serious attention to the development of an appreciation of our traditional freedoms. What the schools do may prove in the long run to be more decisive than any other factor in preserving the form of government we cherish."

Under the theme, Education for the Common Defense, daily topics dealing with efforts of schools to produce good citizens are: Sunday, "Enriching Spiritual Life"; Monday, "Strengthening Civic Loyalties"; Tuesday, "Financing Public Education"; Wednesday, "Developing Human Resources"; Thursday, "Safeguarding Natural Resources"; Friday, "Perpetuating Individual Liberties"; Saturday, "Building Economic Security."

On one of these topics Mr. Baggenstos, field biologist from the University of Missouri, will speak at the Horace Mann school Thursday. His topic will be "Safeguarding Natural Resources."

Members of the committee for National Education Week in the College are Dr. Mason, Miss Keith, Mr. Dorn, Dr. Kleinpell, and Mr. Dieterich.

In an audition on a national radio network over KMBC she was well received also. It has been announced that the managers of KMBC and WHB told her that she would be given the first call when an opening appeared in the staff of either station.

Miss Hamilton will go to Kansas City Sunday for an engagement at the Tower Theater.

Training School of Tomorrow—J. E. Windrow

"The training school is likely the best index to the general quality of the college which sponsors it. If your training school is a problem child, it has very likely a problem mother. Now as we face the future we would like to do so with the hope that the teachers colleges of America who sponsor us will take a firm grip on their own education and purposes and philosophy. With one hundred years of experience, it would seem that they could decide whether they are Greek or Barbarian."

"Concerning the nature of learning, the training schools of the future will assume that when children have a part in planning their work with the teacher—we refer, of course, to intelligent planning—and are held rigidly to their part of the enterprise, the result is desirable education. Through these processes, stamina and moral fiber are developed. When children merely carry out tasks set out for them to do, the result is soft education, and a degeneracy of moral fiber results. Too long have children been cheated by the predetermined sequence of assignment, study, recitation, and review. Learning activities, in the school of tomorrow will literally team with opportunities for critical thinking and with challenges to solve problems. Children will be required to face facts, and they will do what they do, in the face of facts, and that is disciplining education. Soft education results when parents and teachers face all the facts and shield the children from responsibility. When children have no responsibility in connection with making decisions, that is demoralizing education. We would like for ours to be the hard, toughening kind of education that builds character, and we will not miss the opportunity to mold character by depriving our children of the privilege of intelligently participating in the planning of their day-by-day activities."

"Our dreams of building a democratic society will be meaningless unless we give our children the power and strength which come with the acceptance of responsibility. Problem-solving situations which call for the recognition of a difficulty, by setting up of a hypothesis, the planning of a solution, the making of observations, the collecting of data, the drawing of conclusions, the verifying of these conclusions, will be provided by the laboratory school of the future. On the secondary level in particular, the students have a greater capacity and need for self-government."

"The training school is indisputably the noblest achievement of the teachers' college. And it is the teachers' college's distinctive contribution. In it speculation is measured against flesh and blood. It is gathered about a little child for whose service the whole activity of education was ordained. It does not discredit theory and it welcomes the theorist, but it insists that the words of theory are as empty as the futile echoing of brass if they set up other gods than the little child. We ask for freedom from the forces that cramp and paralyze us, financial, professional, and administrative, but we ask for it only in the name of the children we teach, and for those other and farther removed children to whom the contagion of good teaching will inevitably carry."

Mary Louise Karns had as her guest, her mother, from St. Joseph, Thursday and Friday, October 31 and November 1.

PRE-REGISTRATION BEGINS NOVEMBER 11 FOR NEXT TERM

Atchison County May Have A. A. U. W. Branch

Women graduates of the College who are interested in forming a county branch of A. A. U. W. in Atchison county are asked to communicate with Miss Lillian Staples of Rock Port. The branch may take in Westboro, Fairfax, Tarkio, and surrounding country.

Dr. Ruth Lowery, recording secretary for the state board of A. A. U. W., and Miss Frances Holliday, a member of the state membership committee, went to Rock Port and Tarkio on Sunday to investigate the possibilities of forming such a branch. It is thought, as there are many of the women graduates of the Northwest Missouri State Teachers college in that district, that establishment of the county branch can be completed.

YMCA and YWCA Announce Their Winter Program

First Event of the New Year Will Be an All School Dance.

With the fall quarter near a close and with meetings planned until that time, the YMCA and YWCA announce their program for the first part of the winter quarter. The last meeting of the fall quarter will be in the form of a panel discussion on the topic of "Family Relations," which has been the theme for the past quarter.

The beginning of the new series of programs will be started on the evening of Thursday, December 5, with the subject of "Removing Biblical Illiteracy." This meeting will consist of a series of ten minute talks made by various heads of departments of the College. As a follow-up of this meeting, on December 12, a well planned worship service will be held followed by a second of the series on the subject, conducted by Miss Fern Babcock of the Southwest YMCA and YWCA.

For the final meeting before the holiday season, the group will hold a carol singing party on the night of December 16 followed by a chili supper.

The first event of the New Year will be an all college Folk Dancing party for the purpose of orienting the college students to some of the folk dances prior to the coming of Mr. Lynn Rohrbough, National Recreation Leader, who may be on the campus in February.

Following this informal event, a second series of subjects will be pursued on International Fellowships. For the meeting on January 18, Miss Katherine Parker, of the Student Volunteer Movement, will be here to present an interesting program on the place of "Missions in the World."

The YMCA and YWCA will continue their meetings every Thursday night throughout the year.

Membership in these organizations is open to all college students regardless of class, race, or creed. The meetings, which show promise of presenting interesting material, are open to all college students.

The chairmen of the program committee are Lois Langland and John Carl Dunlap.

UEL W. LAMKIN,
President

Each Student Will Arrange an Appointment with His Adviser Next Week.

WILL SAVE CONFUSION

Plans for pre-registration have been announced at the College for the Winter Quarter. Pre-registration will extend from November 11 to November 15, inclusive. All students now enrolled are urged to take note of the following procedure this next week and to act accordingly.

Each student will arrange an appointment with his faculty adviser and at that time will fill out the red registration card with all data possible except the actual program of classes for the winter quarter. The red card is to be left with the faculty adviser.

The most important job of the pre-registration plan is for the student to make out his trial schedule on the white card and have it approved by the adviser. Students in the general courses and in freshman English are advised to have their classes at the same hour as in the fall quarter. When the trial schedule card is approved by the faculty adviser, it will be kept with the red card in the faculty adviser's office.

On December 3, the student will show his course book to the faculty adviser who will check the work of the Fall Quarter and, if the program is satisfactory, approve the card for transfer to the red registration card.

The student will pick up the red card, fill out the class schedule, have the courses in physical education entered, have his room approved, and pay his fees.

It is the hope of the administration that this pre-registration period will reduce the time required for registration and be of considerable convenience to the students.

Miss Dorthea Han Will Leave for New Position

Miss Dorthea Han, school nurse, will leave November 12 to accept a civil service position in the Veterans' Facility at Wadsworth, Kansas. Miss Han has been employed here for fourteen months. She states that she has enjoyed being associated with the people here and will miss them very much.

Mr. Goodspeed, who is a former student of the college, also attended a reunion of the "smallpox" glee club, of which he was a member in 1914 at the University of Missouri. The club got its name when a sleage of smallpox among its members caused the club to be stranded several weeks in Southwestern states.

Maryville Women Visit Capital of Nebraska

Miss Carrie Hudson of the Fine Arts department, Miss Katherine Helwig of the Mathematics department, Mrs. C. J. Hudson, Miss Orrell Helwig, and Miss Fannie Hope drove to Lincoln, Nebraska, Saturday. They visited the state Capitol, the University of Nebraska, and other points of interest.

A NEW FEATURE

The Student Senate is the students' voice in the administration of the College. But just how many students know who represents them on this student government body let alone what action these people take? Just how many freshmen even know that the students of the College have a Student Senate?

In order that many students may realize that there is a Student Senate on this campus and that all may know what this student representative body does, in the columns of the next issue of the Northwest Missourian and all following issues will appear a section that will give the student of the College the information.

It is the present plan that this section will give the names of the Senators and whether they are absent or present at meetings. The motions that are made and the passage or failure of the motions will also be in these columns. When a particularly important issue is acted upon, the vote by person may be given.

It is the hope of the Student Senate and of the Northwest Missourian that such a feature will tend to set up more interest and enthusiasm rather than the indifference that has prevailed heretofore on this campus concerning such matters.

From the Dean

Yes, we are going to have a Student Center! Hadn't you heard? What is a Student Center? Just this:

Hearken back to the good ol' days when we were still using the revered "College of knowledge," namely, the Old West Library, for a combination gossip center, date parlor, and general "rambling" room. Recall those activities "committed" there which, without fail, called forth the booming wrath of Mr. Wells. With that picture in mind, imagine a room created expressly for the purpose of making possible just such "activities" and you have our prospective Student Center!

Are we going to get behind it? Are we going to support it? You bet we are!

MARJORY STONE,

Dean of Faculty for Two Days.

From Dean Jones

Today the College is in the hands of the students. It is one of the traditions of the College that during the meeting of the State Teachers Association the students manage the College, teach the classes, and care for all details about this busy place. I recall many a beginning teacher who has said she learned more in her first year of teaching school than she did in many years attending school. It is not unusual to hear young people who take over the management of a great organization for a day or so say that they learned much as a result of the experience.

But do not be misled — the welfare of the College is in the hands of the student body everyday, and in everything you do while you attend this College you are marked as a Northwest Missouri State Teachers College man or woman. Your acts on and off the campus — in and out of the classroom — what you say and do, how you work and play, all place the College in your hands. The College is yours to mould into a powerful influence in this district of yours or to cast aside depending upon how you consider its value.

The College is in the hands of the students.

—J. W. Jones.

VALUE OF SCHOLARSHIP

"As a citizen, I see a great need for intelligent enthusiasts for our democratic way of life. Flag-waving is not enough, nor is it sufficient to be willing to die for our country. We must have a thorough understanding of the democratic process if we are to so live that democracy can survive.

"In the totalitarian countries there is a scorn for all learning that is not completely utilitarian. In democratic America we know that it is scholarship which has lighted the world since the Middle Ages. We cannot afford to sacrifice it. If liberty and freedom are to be maintained, justice, tolerance, and reason must prevail."

—Paul G. Hoffman

FIVE STEPS

It is only five steps across the room; That is, if one stays in that certain track, That track where I think I shall stay till doom— From chair to bed, from bed to chair, and back. It is only five steps across the room.

—Marjorie Ruth White (Writers' Club)

SHALL FRESHMAN TESTS BE SHORTER?

On the basis of the record of 2,430 freshmen at the University of Illinois, an investigation has been made to determine the relation existing between the scores made on the vocabulary section of entrance examinations and the general average of grades made at the end of the first semester.

The investigation showed that the score made on the vocabulary test would serve rather well as an indication of what the semester grade would be, the 29-word test serving just as well in predicting the average grade for all subjects as the much longer objective test of which the vocabulary test was but a part.

William D. Templeman, writing of the investigation, expresses the opinion, after a study of statistics, that the "college freshman possessing a vocabulary superior to those of his classmates will do superior academic work throughout his college course." He adds further: "The present investigation may be said to point also toward a conclusion that if at any time during his educational career (even after he has entered college, or graduate school) a person possesses or builds up a vocabulary greater than the vocabularies of his classmates, his grades in the immediate future will be higher than theirs."

Ruth Ryan spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Con gish department went to King City, Mo., to visit her parents. She had some difficulty getting in on and to attend on Sunday a family time Sunday night. The bus broke down and she was compelled to wait for another to come from Omaha.

Miss Mattie M. Dykes of the English department went to King City, Mo., to visit her parents. She had some difficulty getting in on and to attend on Sunday a family time Sunday night. The bus broke down and she was compelled to wait for another to come from Omaha.

Park College, Maryland, Has Blind Dating System

Students at two girls' schools in College Park, Maryland, have seemingly worked out a solution to the blind-date question. Whenever a dance is being given and more escorts are needed, a notice is sent to Maryland University. There it is posted and the speculative males sign up, taking their chances in respective order.

Kansas State Teachers Are Graded by Students

The current issue of KICKAPOO, Kansas State College magazine, carries an article advocating the grading of professors by students. The proposed plan would allow A, B, and C students to participate, and would prohibit D and flunking students from the grading. The article suggests that all faculty members who could not receive a passing grade over a five year period be relieved of their duties. Many universities have installed professor-graduate systems.

High School Lists Honor Roll Pupils

At the end of the first six weeks period of the year in the Horace Mann school the honor roll is divided. The first honor roll is of students with all grades of "S" or above. It is as follows: Freshmen, Jack Dieterich, Lehman Hansen, Jr., Tommy Townsend, Billy Treese; Sophomores, Herbert Dieterich, Jr., Cullen Blumenthal, Pauline Duff, Jean Hansen; Juniors, Dale Rasco, Verlin Tompkins; Seniors, Vivian Pink, Eva Huff, Cleta McClure, Virginia Lee Moody, Kent Stickleman.

Students Will Hold National Peace Rally

On November 11, in commemoration of Armistice Day, thousands of American students will gather in cities and towns throughout the United States in a great "peace rally" designed to reiterate American Youth's determination that the United States shall not again become involved in wars on foreign soil.

The call for the nation-wide meetings was issued by the American Youth Congress, which has its headquarters in New York City. The Congress claims to represent all youth groups in the country, including both high school and college students.

Students are expected by the Congress to participate in the peace meetings on a scale greater than ever before. The effects of the war upon their own lives, peace-time conscription, and growing attacks upon academic freedom have combined to convince young people in America of the great necessity for peace and democracy in the United States. The mass meetings, it is hoped, will enable them to give voice to their thoughts and feelings in the matter, and perhaps enable them to help to keep America out of war.

Among other things, the Youth Congress advocates a firm foreign policy directed towards keeping the United States out of the war in Europe and away from intervention in Asia, a domestic policy based on maintenance and extension of our civil liberties and the continued improvement of the living standards of the people, and a "free, unregulated and happy youth, guaranteed the right to education, vocational training, and jobs."

Ginger Snaps

Teacher — Parse the sentence, "Tom married Jane."

Small Boy — Tom's a noun because he's the name of something. Married's a conjunction because it joins Tom and Jane. Jane's a verb because she governs the noun.

There are some who say that stealing a kiss is petty larceny. Others say that it's grand.

One robin may not make a spring, but one lark can certainly make a fall.

Aln't it so? Give a girl an inch and she'll make a bathing suit out of it.

Teacher: "There are still parts of the world where men eat each other. What would you call a man who eats another man?"

Pupil: "Gready, sir!"

Professor: What is a minkhate? Student (nude): Deleted for obvious reasons! A date with a man, not a boy.

What did the little chair say to the big one? "High chair!"

She tells everything she gets her ears on.

"That hockey bout was a bang-up game!" said the girl with the bruises.

"Ain't attie berries!" said Mr. Baldwin to Yvonne (Atterbury).

How can you make a slow pupil fast? Tie him up.

There is the girl who thinks that the man who does the fighting in the bullfight is a bulldozer, and the fellow who thinks that a tangarine is the national musical instrument of Spain.

When Miss Shepherd said, "You may get your papers when you pass out," she might have said, "You may pass out when you get your papers."

The Stroller...

The Stroller heard one of the Residence Hall girls say, "Oh, I just love a candidate." The Stroller fell dead when he learned that this girl thought a candidate was a date who brought candy.

But she came to life again in time to see Mr. Baldwin get out his student handbook to get the words of the Alma Mater while the band was playing it. The Stroller was sure, then, that one person at least read an article in the Northwest Missourian before he went to the game. She still does not know who it was, though, who wrote last week's peculiar version of the song.

During this quarter, Annette Crowe has gone home almost every week-end. She says that it is on account of an infection in her arm and that she has to go home to see a doctor, but the Stroller wonders if it isn't because her interests have changed from journalism to aviation. At least, when she returns, her conversation always seems to be about David and airplanes, rather than about her arm.

If the Stroller's memory is good, there are some people who have "made" the column before—Leslie Somerville, Jr., for instance. There is no way of keeping him out, however. When someone on the music trip to Kansas City exclaims, "Oh, look at the deer!" Leslie naively asks, "Is she walking or riding?"

The Stroller saw Leo Strohm ringing the doorbell at 311 West Third about 7:30 Monday evening. There wasn't a Newton Club meeting so Leo will have to think up another explanation of this.

When Edith Honeycutt prepares a meal, the fear of a failure is the thought uppermost in her mind. Maybe that's why the Stroller found her with her eyes closed pouring in the ingredients of vegetable soup.

If girls do not stop flashing sparklers here at the very beginning of the year, what is the Stroller going to have to write about just after the Christmas holiday? Here comes little brunette Ruth Hulsizer back from a week-end at home wearing a regular flashlight on her third finger, and Jean Strong also sports a new diamond.

If girls are making conquests, boys are doing the same or getting conquered. While out scouting, the Stroller ran into Ralph Knepper and Don Wilson sans frat pins. Wherefore? When the Stroller asked, he was told, "Go to St. Joe!" Now what, says the Stroller scratching his head, is the meaning of that?

Music Group Makes Trip to Kansas City

Observes Music Activity in City Schools; Sees New Instrument.

A group of music students accompanied by Miss Leeder, Miss Kämpfner, and Dr. DeJarnette went to Kansas City Monday of this week for the purpose of observing music classes in the city schools.

They were guests for the day of Miss Mabelle Glenn, Kansas City School Music Supervisor.

The school bus, driven by Ted Adkins, left Maryville with the music people at 7:45 o'clock in the morning and began the return trip at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

The first visit was made to Central Junior High School, where there the group visited two music classes, one a girl's glee club directed by Miss Leedy, the other a mixed chorus directed by Mr. Dabney.

Lunch reservations had previously been made at the De Lano school for crippled children. Here the group was most courteously accommodated. The supervisor very kindly answered questions and gave the students much information about the work of the school.

Immediately following lunch the group was fortunate in having an opportunity to visit a band rehearsal conducted by Mr. Schlager at Central Junior High School. Mr. Schlager is also the band director at Central High School.

In the afternoon a visit was made to Westport Junior High School. Observations were made during the two music classes—one a girls' group, and the other a class composed of ninety boys. These classes were under the leadership of Miss Merlin and were supervised by Miss Glenn.

The rest of the time in the city was spent at Jenkins' music store. They were shown through the entire store and given a demonstration of a new instrument called the solo box.

Horace Mann Students Re-elect Roosevelt

Adult men and women are not the only people who get excited over politics and national elections! There was very strong evidence of this fact down at the Horace Mann school Tuesday when the students in Junior and Senior High carried out a project in the form of a regular election in which Roosevelt was elected by a small plurality of 97 votes to 89 votes for Wilkie.

The polls were open from eight to twelve Tuesday morning, and pupils could go in to vote at any time between classes or during their study hall period. Student clerks and judges worked at the polls. The social science practice teachers had previously selected the judges who in turn selected the clerks. Sample ballots obtained from the Democratic and Republican committees were used for voting.

The ballots were counted in the afternoon, and the returns announced to the student body. These returns were received amidst much cheering and enthusiasm.

It was interesting to note that several students voted split tickets, while there were two or three straight Socialist tickets voted.

The student judges and clerks taking part were: Gaylord Jensen, Herbert Dieterich, Jim Carter, Eva Huff, Beverly Ann Richards, Mary Gates, Clara May Lincoln, Jean Walden, Marjorie Mitchell, Roma Walden, Robert Burks, Raymond Evans, Loren Workman, Cleta McClure, Margaret Vette, Glenn Blumenthal, and Florene Hollenbe.

This project was sponsored by the social science department under the supervision of Mr. Hubert Carrett. It was under the management of the practice teachers in the social science department who are: Dorothy Matter, Osborn, Harold Hawk, Parnell, Paul Fields, Maryville; Orville Brightwell, Fayette; Raymond Kinder, Maryville; and Dick Dempsey, Kansas City. The students had studied the procedure in voting in social science classes, and the whole school had been given instructions for voting before the day of election.

Phi Sigma Epsilon Open House Is Big Success

Last Friday night, November 1, immediately after the Maryville-Cape Girardeau football game here, the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity held its annual open house party at the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity house located at 303 West Third Street. About thirty-five couples attended.

Quad Highlights

The three new NYA Residential Training Projects: the new Industrial Arts Building, the new south-west dormitory, which is well under way, and the general construction work on the campus roadways, under the direction of S. F. Simerly, have been progressing very well. The forms for the foundation of the new dormitory are nearly completed.

The boys in Mr. Main's Vocational English classes have been brushing up on their spelling and punctuation. The boys all agree that you spell "cat" starting with the letter "c", but cannot always remember the other two letters. Superintendent Wilson has been passing out work shoes to the NYA boys on construction work. The shoes were made for use in the Army, and are hold-overs from the World War. The boys say that they make a creaking noise when they walk.

James S. Wolfram, a student from St. Joseph, has discontinued his training career at the college, and has returned to his home, Gale Manville of Gilman City and J. Wickizer of Galesburg have also quit the school and returned home. A number of the NYA boys who enrolled late have been unable to secure rooms at the Quad and have been placed in private homes on N. Fillmore and W. First streets.

Ping-pong is still the boys favorite pastime while they are idle at the dormitories. There will be a ping-pong tournament started soon, in which every boy in the NYA who is interested, may participate. Charles Bittick, a St. Joseph lad, who was enrolled in the Quad has returned to St. Joseph where he has employment.

Bernie McClaskey suffered a severely sprained ankle while playing basketball in the NYA league. He was confined to his bed for a couple of days but is now about his duties, again with the aid of crutches. Frank Thee of the east dormitory has been ill with influenza Monday and Tuesday of this week and was ordered to bed by Dr. Anthony. His condition of late has been reported somewhat improved.

"Bill" Landers, was also on the sick list with a bad cold last Wednesday and Thursday. He has gone to his home to recover from his illness but is expected back soon.

There were three games played in the NYA league Monday night. "Red" Turnbull's team was soundly trimmed by a team captained by Jack Haun by a score of 16 to 7. Nally was high man for the Haun crew and Turnbull and Collins shared honors for the losers. Team No. 17 defeated team No. 12 and a team captained by Thomas defeated team No. 13 by a score of 18 to 10. James Gorum of the NYA has joined the Bearcat football team and has been working out regularly with them. He hails from Richmond where he won letters for three years in football. The swimming group meets on Tuesday and Thursday nights at the College pool. Ralph Collins has been practising with Coach Stalcup's basketball team this week.

Among the boys who visited at their homes over the week-end were: Robert Stegall, Frank Thee, Carl Gutshall, Marlin Morehouse, Ralph Collins, and LeRoy McQuarry.

Robert Egan and W. A. Justus are new students in the metal and machine shop work group. Boys working on constructing the new dormitory are: McKee, O'Connor, Norton, Thomlinson, Abbott, Moriy, Cheneweth, Young, Kelsio, and Blakeman. The students working on the new Industrial Art shop are: Anno, McClasky, Huddleson, Fowler, and Lorenz. The students in charge of campus work under Mr. Simerly are: Roe, Summers, Nally, and Haun.

Among the new enrollees in the Quad are: Arthur N. Wright, Wendell M. Ware, Garland G. Russell, Forrest E. Perselly, Ira L. Price, W. A. Justus, Robert F. Dooley, Glenn Drummond, and Leonard E. Early. Price has now withdrawn from school — and so to bed.

Handicapped Bearcats Face Kirksville Today

Five Men Out

Kirksville Looks Good;
But Bearcats Confident

Maryville and Bulldogs
Are Tied in M. I. A. A.

The Bearcats travel to Kirksville to face an improved Bulldog eleven in a conference game today. Kirksville presents a strong team that has won four, tied one, and lost two games. It has defeated Chillicothe Business College, Central College, Iowa Wesleyan, and Warrensburg, and has tied Missouri Valley; it lost to Springfield and Cape Girardeau. Last week the Bulldogs knocked off Warrensburg, which was previously unbeaten in conference play. The score was 10 to 7.

Wallace Hicks, veteran end for Maryville, will definitely be out with a bad cold. Don Paxson has pulled a leg muscle; and Ralph Kurtright has injured his kicking leg. Don Paxson will see action, but probably will not start and his position will be filled by shifty Jack Padilla. Vic Farrell has not fully recovered from an injury suffered in the Cape game when he received a kick on the head and suffered from shock. McClanahan is still suffering from infections.

Line coach Stalcup stated, "Kirksville has a nice club. They were the only conference team to score on Maryville in the two years we were undefeated." Maryville defeated Kirksville 19 to 13 last year.

Comparative strength may be seen in that both teams have met Cape Girardeau. The Bulldogs lost to Cape 13 to 0, but since then they have shown great improvement and have beaten Warrensburg. Maryville gained an 18 to 0 triumph over Cape last week.

Kirksville has the lightest letterman linemen in the conference. Wayland Longwith, 137 pound senior center. However, he played 56 minutes against Maryville last year.

M. I. A. A. Standings

	W.	L.	T.	Pts.	Opp.
Springfield	3	0	0	1,000	68
Warrensburg	2	1	0	487	27
Cape Girardeau	1	2	0	333	12
School of Mines	1	2	0	333	38
Maryville	1	2	0	333	18
Kirksville	1	2	0	333	10

The conference spotlight focuses on the Springfield and Warrensburg game, as the conference leaders meet this week. Springfield ran over Rolla, 27 to 7, last week. Rolla being the first team to score on Springfield this year. Warrensburg was upset by Kirksville 10 to 7 last week. Maryville, last year's conference winners, tackle Kirksville today, at Kirksville, while Cape and Rolla tangle.

Mathematically speaking the conference race is not yet settled. If Warrensburg beats Springfield and then beats Maryville next week, Warrensburg and Springfield would tie for first. If Springfield drops both games, and Maryville downs Kirksville and Warrensburg, Springfield field, Warrensburg and Maryville would share the conference winnings. However Kirksville, Rolla, and Cape Girardeau have the same mathematical chances.

If the Bearcats beat Kirksville, and Springfield downs Warrensburg; Maryville, Warrensburg, and the winner of Rolla and Cape will share second place.

NYA Quad Boys Start Basket Ball Practice

The boys of the Quad have been enjoying playing basketball at the College gymnasium three nights a week. On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday nights quite a number of boys have turned out at the gym. They report that they believe there is going to be plenty of good material for an excellent intra-mural team next quarter and that they intend to get into condition early.

On the Tuesday and Thursday nights several of the boys have been enjoying swimming in the College pool.

Susan Foley visited over the weekend of November 2-3, in the home of Coleen Hultatt at Maitland, Missouri.

Bearcats Beat Indians; 18-0

Maryville Scores in the Opening Minutes of Play.

Darr, J. Kurtright, Schottel
Prove Their Bearcat Prowess.

Maryville downed Cape Girardeau 18 to 0, in a game that featured three Cape fumbles that were recovered by Maryville and which led to all the scoring.

Maryville wasted little time in scoring. In fact, they scored before the fans were comfortably seated. Maryville kicked off to Cape, with Gregory doing the kicking, and the ball was returned to the 22 yard line. After two plays Spurlock fumbled, and Dean Walker fell on the ball. Maryville picked up three yards on three plays. In the next play, Joe Kurtright faded back and dropped an 18 yard pass into the arms of Harry Darr for a touchdown. Roscoe Branch, Cape end, broke through to block Ralph Kurtright's try for extra point.

Maryville did not score again until Joe Kurtright recovered a Cape fumble on the Cape 28 yard line as the third quarter ended. Kurtright made five yards in two attempts. Darr galloped to the 15, and Padilla gained a yard. Kurtright passed to Schottel who carried the tacklers to the 3. The Indians stiffened as Schottel and Padilla each picked up a yard. On the next play Joe Kurtright skirted his own right end for the touchdown. Ralph Kurtright's try for extra point was blocked.

The Indians then began an offensive drive from their own 25 to the Maryville's 33 yard line as a result of a Maryville penalty and Dunham's running. Reno upset the drive when he recovered Dunham's fumble as he attempted to lateral on the Cape 46. Padilla scampered 5 yards, and on the next play he lateraled to Schottel who was downed on the 32. Harry Darr was thrown for a 10 yard loss. A pass from Schottel to Kurtright netted 15 yards. Kurtright plowed over center for a first down.

Joe Kurtright faded far back, and passed over the goal to Darr who caught the ball on a dead run. Gregory's try for extra point was wide.

Line-backers, Ivan Schottel and Larry Loos, played a fine defensive game, breaking up several Cape plays. Harry Darr, who caught two touchdown passes, brought the crowd to its feet on a punt return which he returned 25 yards to the midfield marker after eluding several would-be tacklers. Joe Kurtright, who tossed two touchdown passes and scored another, also played a fine game. Vic Farrell, 220 pound tackle, was injured shortly before the half. He was carried from the field unconscious and was taken to the St. Francis hospital for a checkup, but proved not to be seriously injured.

Branch and Dunham played outstanding ball for the visitors. The margin of victory was much closer than the score indicated. Cape out-gained the Bearcats but made no serious scoring attempts.

Doubly Happy Landing

This is not a new kind of double-decked plane but the happy finale of one of the most spectacular feats in aviation history. Flying in formation in Royal Australian Air Force maneuvers at Wagga, New South Wales, these two planes became locked in mid-air. Three crew members parachuted to safety, but student pilot A. G. Fuller, in top plane, decided to try to land both ships. Cutting his motors, he used his plane's controls, while lower plane's motors roared, to effect this perfect double landing.

Coach Stalcup Begins Drill For Cagers

Roster Will Be Complete
After Close of Football.

Eight Lettermen Are Expected to Report for Varsity Squad.

With the basketball season fast approaching, Coach Wilbur Stalcup is dividing his attention between his duties as line coach for the football squad and mentor of the basketball team. Coach Stalcup, in an effort to help the team maintain their position as M. I. A. A. champions for another year, has begun practice for boys who are not on the football squad. Practice is being held at the gym four days each week from 4:30 to 5:30. When it is necessary for Coach Stalcup to be away with the football team, Don Johnson has charge of the practice.

Thus far, five lettermen have reported. They are Don Johnson, Jack Salmon, Eddie Johnson, Harold Hutcheson, and Bob Alpert.

Among the other men who are out to make the team are Eugene Cross, Roy Tanner, John Laughlin, Buel Snyder, Bill Phares, Jack Blohm, Kenny Dowell, and Wes Mc-

Claren. While this is a small number, there will be several more at the end of the football season. Dean Walker, Wallace Hicks, and Harold Hull, all lettermen, are still in football training.

Burdette Moon, "Speck" Myers, Ben Mooney, Neil Thompson, Charles Fletcher, Ivan Schottel, Bill Logan, Art Schmagel, Paul Wilson, Paul Gates, and Floyd Reno, also members of the football squad, are expected to report after the football season.

The Bearcats will lose two of their first string men who had been expected to play this year when "Rev" Insley and Gale Donahue leave with the National Guard.

Horace Mann Cubs Defeat Corning

Cubs Win First Victory
Friday, by 19-0 Score.

The Horace Mann Cubs, who started weak this year but have been improving steadily, gained their first victory last Friday afternoon when they defeated Corning, Mo., by a score of 19-0. The first half of the game was slow although both teams were close to the scoring line, but the second half opened with the Cubs scoring a touchdown in the first few seconds, and then scoring two more before the final whistle.

"Steve" Lance fumbled on the Cub's 25 in the first quarter and Corning recovered to carry the pigskin to the 10 before they lost it on downs. As the quarter entered its final minutes, the Horace Mann team took the ball on a punt at the 31 and with two plays gained a first down. A pass was completed but they lost the ball on downs after it was advanced to the 10 yard line. The second quarter was uneventful, most of it being line drives and end plays.

Corning kicked off in the second half and K. McGinness took the ball to run seventy yards for the first score of the game. An attempt to pass for the extra point was knocked down. The Cubs then kicked off to Corning and after several plays Jack Dieterich intercepted a pass. An attempt to pass bogged down and Surplus kicked over the goal line for a touchdown. The second touchdown came when Herb Dieterich intercepted a pass and advanced the ball several yards before he was downed. The next two plays brought a touchdown and Surplus carried the ball over for the extra point. Before the final whistle blew Surplus scored again after the Cubs had gained a first down.

The starting lineups:
Horace Mann Pos. Corning
Baker E. Quinby
Hengeler C. Combs
Surplus E. Farley
H. Dieterich QB. Smuthe
J. Dieterich HB. Rutherford

Another Armistice Day
Finds Democracy's Torch Glowing

The torch of liberty, freedom and true democracy burns on—twenty-two years after the valiants of the first World War flung it into the hands of all the people who would live on... for safe keeping. We must not break that trust. The most turbulent storm shall not put out the light. Our way—the democratic way of living—must go on. Let us not forget, Americans, that we are the torchbearers whose hands can still keep Liberty shining brightly, however dark this present night may be.
